Ohio EPA Welcomes New Director

Ohio EPA welcomes its 12th director since its creation in 1972. Director Scott J. Nally brings more than 20 years of public and private environmental management experience to the position.

Director Nally has an undergraduate degree in biological sciences from North Carolina State University and a master's degree in science from the University of Wyoming. He comes to Ohio EPA after spending the last six years as a senior manager at the Indiana Department of Environmental Management. Prior to that, he worked in the environmental field in the private sector for more than 15 years.

Director Nally has asked Laura Powell to continue in the role of assistant director. Laura has more than 19 years of experience at Ohio EPA and has been assistant director since 2005.
