3. MATERIALS TRACKING

Please enter the cumulative monthly volumes of material received by Beneficial Use Sites during the reporting period. Beneficial Use Site means any location where material authorized by the permit is stored, blended, or beneficially used. Beneficial Use Site does not mean the location where the material is generated. Total Volume = Volume Beneficially Used + Volume Stored. Please do not leave blanks on the form; enter "0" if materials were not received for storage, blending, or land application. Use cubic yards for entries (a conversion factor of one ton to two cubic yards may be used).

For each Beneficial Use Site, enter the annual amount of material received for storage, blending, or land application. Volume Stored means amount of material stored at the Beneficial Use Site as of the date of this annual report. Please refer to your permit for applicable setbacks (e.g., streams, drinking water wells, occupied buildings, sensitive areas, etc.) for materials storage and land application and verify that each Beneficial Use Site meets these conditions.
